

Given that an educated citizenry is the foundation of a successful democracy; given that a good education consists of facts, not suspicions or opinions; given that education occurs over all media; and given that Sinclair Broadcasting plans to utilize one of the most far reaching media available; I find that Sinclair's partisan message is a direct attack on our democracy and should be sanctioned with correctional directives or punitive reparations.